

I am absolutely appalled that a broadcasting company like Sinclair should be allowed to abuse its position by forcing its own personal political views onto the rest of the country in such an open and hateful manner. This campaign is already one of the ugliest and most divisive ever fought in this country, and allowing something like this to be shown without giving equal time to the opposition could have catastrophic consequences!